Product description

With the plus of vitality through selected ingredients herbaBARF Senior is a purely natural supplementary feed that provides the animals body with precious herbs, vitamin E, selenium, amino acids, electrolytes, essential fatty acids, and iron. Recommendable is herbaBARF Senior in principle during the regeneration phase after diseases or operations, to compensate for nutrition-related deficiencies. Likewise, it supports the vitality of older dogs and during breaks in training, lack of agility, general weakness, and listlessness. The plus of vitality is especially given by the contained linoleic acid, gamma-linolenic acid, and various omega fatty acids (3, 6, 9).
