Product description

Bacteria and fungi often form a mouth flora, which affects the health negatively. Inflammation and putrefaction of the mucosa are often the direct consequences - loss of appetite, pain in the mouth area, unpleasant mouth odour, but also infections scattering throughout the body are not unheard of. Therefore, optimal care and hygiene of the mouth is, especially in sensitive animals, an important contribution to the health and well-being. warning: Please do not use when bacteria and fungal cultures should be grown in the mouth, as they may be destroyed.
