Product description

COLUMBAVet Vital is a unique combination of herbs, fruit, and vegetable. Due to the optimal combination of the ingredients, COLUMBAVet Vital contains many vitamins, minerals, and secondary plant substances, which both support the condition of the digestive organs and are also particularly important for supplying the detoxification organs. Optimal condition of detoxification and digestive organs is the most important prerequisite for all metabolic processes and the condition of skin and feathers.

In addition, COLUMBAVet Vital contains a large number of natural plant substances that support the immune system and can ensure shiny and healthy plumage. Therefore, it is recommendable to feed COLUMBAVet Vital over a longer period of time before breeding, traveling and moulting, because only an optimally cared for and healthy animal achieves top performance.

COLUMBAVet Vital
supports liver and the immune system increases the condition of your carrier pigeon and breeding dove promotes a rapid regeneration after the flight
